and the Democratic party. "If every American workingman felt as I do over this conduct of the Governor of the State of New York," said he, "such a man as Flower would never again sit in the execu-tive chair at Albany. Those who were in-strumental in putting Hughes into a felon's cell claim that their party is the party of the poor, of the workingmen, of the common people. The Democratic party cannot fool us longer, We made Flower the Democratic Governor of a Republican State. If you workingmen do your duty here you will teach the Democratic party that it must treat you as men and American citizens when you ask justice. You will teach Flower that you, as sovereign people, must not be insulted and scorned; you will teach men like Harrity that you are men of intelligence and cannot be de-Inded into voting for your enemies. I cannot say one good word of the Demo-cratic party, and I am unable to understand bow any workingman can vote for its candidates."

CHARGE AGAINST POPULISTS,

Commissioner Mitchell Says Gen. Weaver and Others Have Passes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 23 .- Railroad Commissioner William M. Mitchell, who is secretary of the anti-fusion Democratic State committee, is out in an open letter addressed to Judge John Martin, in which he charges that Martin, Jerry Simpson, Senator Peffer, Lewellyn Glick and all the supporters of the People's party ticket who are making a fight against the railroads and the use of railroad passes, are themselves using annual passes over all the lines in the State, and proves his assertion by giving the numbers of Gen. James B. Wesyer's passes. Mitchell denies the charge that he is in the service of the railroad companies while holding the office of Railroad Com missioner.

Rousing Reception to Porter and Fishback in the Brazil Wigwam.

LARGE SATURDAY MEETINGS

Flattering Words for Albert J. Beveridge, On of the Youngest but at the Same Time One of the Best Speakers in the State.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BRAZIL, Ind., Oct. 23 .- Notwithstanding the inclement weather, hundreds of people swarmed in to the Republican rally here last evening. During the afternoon wagonloads of miners and other laborers came from the surrounding towns. The farming element was also well represented. Ex-Governor Porter and W. P. Fishback arrived on the evening train from Indianapolis, and were met at the depot by County Chairman N. T. Keasey, Mayor W. D. Mc-Cullough and Supreme Judge Silas D. Coffey. They were conveyed to Mr. Coffey's residence, on South Forest avenue, where they were dined and received numerous callers. At 7:30 o'clock an enormous crowd, carry torches, repared to Mr. Coffey's resi-dence, and foilowed the speakers' carriage to the wigwam. The procession was headed by three brass bands and two martial bands. The procession was the largest seen in the city this campaign. Long before the great wigwam was reached nearly every seat was occupied by men and women, re-gardless of political affiliations, and hundreds of people were compelled to stand on the outside. Above the speakers' platform hung large pictures of Harrison and Reid. When the speakers stepped on the platform the air was rent with cheers. The McKinley Glee Club was present. James A. Mc Nutt introduced Mr. Porter, who opened his speech by saying that he was glad that he could be in the United States again. after being in the foreign countries for some time. He said he had traveled in many countries, but found "none to com-pare with the United States, notwithstanding the Democrats would have us believe we were in hard luck." Throughout his speech close attention was paid. Mr. Fishback followed in a rousing speech which captured the audience. He spoke for over an hour. At the close of and fatted swine had been slaughtered to be roasted for the barbecue. The cooking began the day before and continued all night. A wagon-load of bread had been prepared. Roast beef, mutton and pork was served to the multitude in abundance. and though they feasted for bours, still there was more to spare. The principal address was made by ex-Governor Porter, who was followed by Patrick O'Donnell, of Chicago, Next came Capt. G. G. Reilly, of Vincennes, and all three were given the best of attention.

Activity in Howard County. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., Oct. 23.-Hon. W. D.

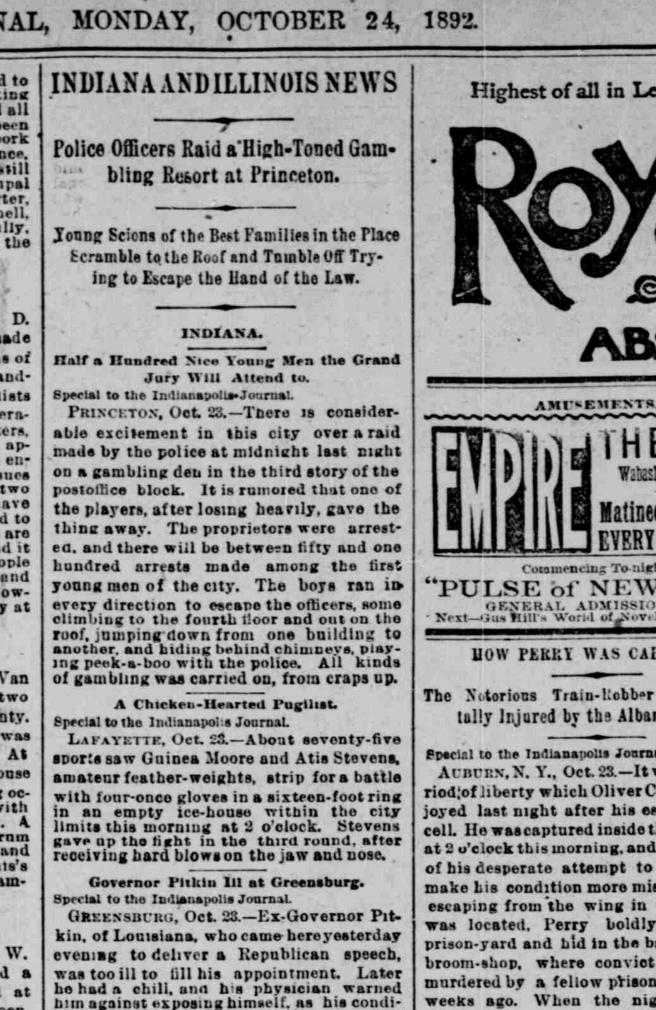

Owen, Commissioner of Immigration, made a masterly speech to the Republicans of this city Friday evening. Notwithstanding the Ninth district rally of the Populists and other counter-attractions, the operabouse was packed with Harrison shouters. who fairly shook the building with applause. The address was an able and entertaining presentation of the issues before the country. He spoke for two hours, and the vast audience would have remained till morning had he continued to speak. The Republicans of this place are preparing for a huge time Monday and it is believed that fifteen thousand people will be out to welcome Whitelaw Reid and Channeev M. Depew. Two thousand How-ard county people will hear McKinley at Peru Thursday.

Down in Switzerland County. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

VEVAY, Ind., Oct. 23.-Hon. F. J. Van Vorhis, of Indianapolis, has addressed two immense meetings in Switzerland county. At Patriot, Thursday night, the house was not large enough to hold the people. At Vevay, Friday night, the large court-house was jammed, even standing-room being occupied. The room was decorated with flags and pictures of Harrison and Reid. A glee club of over fifty singers, a large drum corps, composed mostly of old soldiers, and a band furnished music. Mr. Van Vorhts's speech was among the best of the campaign here.

Cleveland and "Mixed" Schools. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.-Many thousand topies of a brief campaign document have been sent into the South by the third-party managers, in the hope that it will intensify the anti-Cleveland feeling in that section.

It is a copy of the statute establishing "mixed schools" in the city of New York, and was signed by Mr. Cleveland as Govprnor of New York in May, 1884. It is held that by this action Mr. Cleveland committed himself to the principles and policy of "mixed schools."

SUICIDE BY GAS.

End of a Wealthy Californian in New York, Where He Lived Only for Pleasure.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 23.-H. J. Nilson, of San Francisco, a guest of the Manhattan House, was found dead in his room this morning by the proprietor of the hotel and a colored porter. The latter had been sent to Nilson's room to awaken him for breakfast, and, getting no response, attempted to open the door, but found it locked. He then opened the transom, and was partly overcome by the rush of gas from the room. With the proprietor he broke in the door, and found Nilson's dead body lying across the bed, with the gas jet turned on. A couple of physicians were called, but could do nothing for him, as he had evidently been dead some hours, having turned on the gas and died from asphysation. A letter found among his effects asked that J. P. Eldredge, of Weatchester, Pa., be notified should anything happen to him. The person referred to was notified, bat has not yet responded. Nilson was about forty years old, and in appearance a man of means and prominence. It is said he had no family connections, and traveled but for pleasure, having plenty of money. He often spoke of John Wanamaker, the Postmaster-general, and other prominent men, and claimed close friendship with them. A post-mortem examinarival of Eldredge.

Flattering for Worrell and Beveridge. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Mr. Fishback's speech three cheers were GREENCASTLE, Ind., Oct. 23, - The past week has been one of unusual activity and encouragement to the Republicans of Putnam county. Hon. John Worrell's meetings were largely attended, and if all signs fail not the result of the congressional canvass in this once Democratic stronghold will be an eye-opener to the Bartholomew statesman. Yesterday's meetings in this city were an index to the "short, sharp and decisive" campaign which the Republicans propose to wage from now till the Novem-ber contest. Mr. Worrell spoke in the afternoon, his hearers being principally farmers. The speech was well received and showed the speaker to be in thorough sympathy with the agriculturists of whom he is one. In his discussion of the issues before the people he has proved himself a stronger man than his competitor. more in touch with their interests, and whose claims to their support rise superior to the self-glorification that has marked the speeches no less than the career of his opponent.

Albert J. Beveridge addressed the night meeting at the court-house in a speech brimful of magnetic eloquence and telling points. Mr. Beveridge must be heard to be appreciated. As well attempt to touch up a master painting as to do justice to the really captivating and eloquent imagery with which this young-appearing orator is able to clothe politics. The desire to hear him in this city, where he achieved his first distinction as the oratorical representative of De Pauw University, was shared by the students, and many were unable to gain admission to the court-room. The raptur-ous applause that greeted his utterances would be positively flattering to the oldest campaigners on the stamp.

Rollins at Morristown.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MORRISTOWN, Oct. 23.-The largest crowd Morristown ever saw was here yesterday to hear the political issues discussed by Hon. Thaddens S. Rollins, of Indianapolis. In spite of the drizzling rain which fell all day, a crowd variously estimated at from three thousand to six thousand, was in town. At 1 o'clock a grand parade was formed, nearly three miles in length, which marched through the principal streets, all gaily decorated with flags, banners and bunting, and dotted with pictures of Harrison and Reid. Delegations came in from other parts of the county, led by brass bands and drum corps, and made up,largey of traction engines drawing wagon trains. A special feature of the day was the First Voters' Club of forty, which marched at the head of the procession with music and banuers inscribed "Hanover's Forty First Voters," and "We vote it straight, everyone of us." These acted as an escort to the speaker. Democrats had previously derisively referred to the raily as "children's day," but now the Republicans have taken up the cry which rings through our strests and the Democrats ay, realizing that thei great advertised tri-connty rally was only a small side-show compared to to-day's demonstration. Mr. Rollins spoke for over an hour, and hunareds of people stood throughout the speaking in a drenching rain. The speech met with the hearty approval of Shelby county people, who were lately called on to hear a rank Southern speech at this place. The speaker closed with words of compliment and encouragement to the young voters who had taken so prominent a part in the day's demonstra-

or for this district. The speech was one of the best delivered in this county during the campaign.

Bad Day for a Meeting. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

SALEM, Ind., Oct. 23 .- Owing to the continued rains the Republican meeting was held in the opera-house to-day. If it had not rained all day there would have been an immense crowd in town. Hon. J. T. Humphrey, of Crawfordsville, delivered a splendid speech before the large crowd. He was frequently applauded, and his audience was much pleased with his address.

Final Arrangements for the National Meeting in Denver This Week Are Complete.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 23 .- The final arrangements for the W. C. T. U. national convontion, which meets in this city next Friday, have been completed and the gathering promises to be most successful in every respect. Miss Willard and Lady Henry Somerset are expected to arrive Tuesday and the throng of delegates, several hundred in number, will begin to come in about the same time. The headquarters of the convention will open at the Albany Thursday morning.

The programme for the daily sessions of the convention in Trinity M. E. Church has been outlined as follows: Miss Frances Willard, the world's and national president, will deliver her annual address at 10:30 on Friday morning, Oct. 28, after which the convention will be formally erganized. In the evening addresses of welcome will be delivered by Governor John L. Routt, Mayor Platt Rogers and others. Responses will be made by officers of the union.. The sessions of the convention will close the following Wednesday night. Arrangements are being made by the local unions to give the delegates excursions around "The Loop" to Colorado Springe, Maniton and other points of interest.

AFTER DEPEW'S SCALP.

"Tommy" Morgan, the Eloquent Socialist of Chicago, Attacks the World's Fair Orator.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.-At the meeting of the Socialists, this afternoon, Thomas H. Morgan took-upon himself the task of criticising certain parts of the oration of Mr. Depew. In one paragraph Mr. Depew spoke of socialism finding a foothold in America, and added that socialism only finds disciples among those compelled to fly from their native land. Mr. Morgan claimed that Mr. Denew, as one of the foremost orators in America, should know better than to make such assertions. "He either does not know what socialism is," continued Mr. Morgan. "or wilfully misrepresents it." Mr. Morgan's argument was placed before the gathering in the form of a resolution denouncing the portion of Mr. Depew's speech, and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

Two Wabash Freights Smash Together Heads-On at Decatur.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DECATUR, Oct. 23.-This forenoon the second section of Trains 97 and 72, both Wabash freights, had a front-end collision on the St. Louis division, near Decatur, and both engines and a dozen cars were wrecked. No one was injured. The engine crews jumped and landed safely. The responsibility is being laid on conductor Kenary and engineer Cristole, of No. 97, who failed to inspect the record book to learn that No. 72 had arrived in Decatur.

Boy Torn to Pieces by Dogs.

SYCAMORE, Oct. 23 .- Fred Ulrich, a boy. was almost murdered by two savage dogs this morning. He was passing the residence of Mrs. H. H. Mitchell, when a savage brute kept by the woman attacked him. Ulrich made a good fight and would have came out all right had not another dog owned by William Walrod also at-tacked him. His only weapon was a small pocket knife, and before aid could reach him the dogs had knocked him down. Nearly all the flesh on one leg and one arm was bitten off, and he was frightfully torn in other parts of his body. There is no tope of his recovery.

went directly to the collar-shop, where a large number of knives are kept, the fugitive's one idea seeming to be to secure a weapon of some kind. As he neared the collar-shop he was seen by keeper Tunis, who stood in the shadow of the building. When within ten feet of the guard. Perry was challenged and ordered to halt. He did not obey and the guard fired a shot from his rifle over the convict's head. This had no effect upon Perry other than to change the course in which he was running and to increase his speed. His change of direction was worse for him, however, as it caused him to pass within reach of keeper Smith, who, without waiting to challenge the fleeing man, struck him over the head with his heavy night stick. So powerful was the blow that the cane was broken and Perry was stretched unconscious at the keeper's feet, the blood flowing freely from a deep wound. Perry was at once taken to the dungeou where he will be confined for some time to come without even the comfort of a bed to rest upon. It is said that after his capture Perry told Warden Durston that it was not liberty he sought, but an opportunity to stick a knife into him. He has conceived a deep hatred for the warden during his long confinement in the screen cell. The instrument which Perry used to dig through the wall of his cell was the iron leg of his bedstand, which he had managed to loosen from its fastening. After the wily little desperado had been safely locked in a dungeon, the extra guards were relieved. Warren Durston assembled the men in the keepers' hall, and in an address warned them not to discuss the matter of Perry's escape and capture in public. De spite these precautions, however, the particulars have transpired. Rumor is in ourculation that Perry was very seriously hurt by keeper Smith's blow, and that death may result. The rumor, of course, cannot be contirmed.

McKinley law, wages had increased and production been vastly stimulated. Mr. Pulitzer instructed his young men to begin an investigation to offset these damaging figures. He sent his reporters throughout the State. They went to hundreds of manufacturers, both Republican and Democratic, and asked for information. In nearly every case figures were given to them from the books of the manufacturers, and after an investigation that lasted three or four weeks Mr. Pulitzer's young men brought back the results. They were of such a nature that Pulitzer did not dare print them in his newspaper. In every instance they confirmed the report of Commissioner Peck, and the investigation has, therefore, collapsed. Even biased and prejudiced Democratic investigators have discovered that it is true that wages have been increased, production stimu: lated, and yet prices not enhanced.

Hundreds of Lives Lost.

LONDON, Oct. 23 .- The latest advices from Cagliari give an appalling account of the terrible storm and flood in Sardinia on Thursday and Friday last, a calamity in which hundreds of lives were lost and hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property was destroyed. The plain of Campidno for fifteen miles north of Cagliari. was affected. The plain stretches from Cagliari to Orestano, a distance of fifty-nine miles, and is an important vine and olivegrowing center. One hundred bodies have been recovered at San Sperate alone. The total death roll must reach several hundred. An immense number of cattle and other live stock perished.

One Million May Starve to Death.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.-Letters from Chinan Fu, in China, bring terrible accounts of the loss of life and property caused by the breaking of the banks of the Yellow river, which is aptly called "China's Sorrow." It is estimated that the flooded district is 150 miles long by thurty miles wide, and that over fifty thousand people have been drowned and that fully one million will starve to death unless the Chinese government furnishes them food from now till next spring. These figures furnish some idea of the enormity of the calamity, in which in a single village the whole loss of life at Johnstown is surpassed.

Judge McCabe's Low-Down Insult. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LAGRANGE, Ind., Oct. 23 .- On Oct. 19 J. W. Hanan and James McCabe, Democratic nominee for judge of the Supreme Court, spoke at Mount Pisgah, this county. Mc-Cabe said that of course the people in the country did not read as much and did not know and understand public affairs as well as people in town, hence he would give a different kind of speech to them than he would if he were speaking in town. Many of his audience resented his insult by leaving the house. After he closed, seating himself in a chair, placing his feet on top of a desk and lighting a cigar, he puffed away to the discomfort of the audience. Men and women left the room. Oue woman raised the window that the smoke might escape. Lagrange county people know when they are well treated, and will resent any insult of this kind, even from a candidate for Supreme Judge.

Kenworthy at Bloomington. Special to the Indianapolis Journal,

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 23.-The Republicans held a grand meeting at the courthouse, last night, that was addressed by Hon. John Kenworthy, of lowa. Though the night had been advertised by the Republicans for more than a month, yet, at the last moment, the Democrats attempted to interfere by having J. G. Shanklin draw crowd at the opera-house. The effort, however, was almost a complete failure, and the address of Mr. Kenworthy was one of the best ever heard here. Ex-Governor Hubbard spoke for the Democrats in the afternoon, and the speech of Kenworthy was a thorough reply to Hubbard's efforts.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 23 .- Dr. Robert Van Valzah, the noted dentist, died this morning of dropsy. He was one of the prominent Masons of the State, past grand master of the State and a thirty-third degree Mason?

Robert Van Valzah was born April 9. 1843. He was a member of the family known as "family of doctors," from the numerous members engaged in that profession. His grandfather had seven sons. five of whom became physicians. His father, however, did not follow the profession. After preliminary studies Robert Van Valzal entered the University at Lewisburg, Pa. He left in the senior year and devoted two years under the dentist. Dr. E. Burlan. He next spent a year in Philadelphia with Dr. J. D. White, professor of dentistry in the Pennsylvania Dental College. He came to Terre Haute in 1864, where he has since carried on his professional practice, achieving much renown. In 1878 he was elected to the State Legislature, and had the honor of placing D. W. Voorhees in nomination for the United States Senate. He was very familiar to the Masons throughout the State for his great zeal in the work, having been a member since 1865. He has occupied all the prominent positions in that body. In 1878 he was elected most worshipful grand

A SPECIMEN VETO.

A Widow, Who Sent Husband and Four Sons to the War, Refused a Pension by Cleveland. Boston Journal

One of the 524 private pension bills which Grover Cleveland vetced was House bill No. 5394, granting a widow's pension to a Mrs. Bradley, of Ohio. Mr. Cleveland's veto message in this case was mercifully brief, not containing any of those sarcastic allusions either to the character of the applicant or to the veterans as a class, which pervaded some of the other documents. Nevertheless, it accomplished its purpose. and this aged woman, who had given a busband and four sons to the service of her country, was refused the slightest recognition in her hour of need.

Concerning this case, Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor-himself a gallant Union veteran-has said on the floor of Congress:

Thomas J. Bradley entered the army in the spring of 1861 as a member of the Twentyjourth Ohio. He served until the close of 1864. having been meanwhile transferred by a con-solidation to the Eighteenth Obio, which I- had the honor to command, and then serving out a total enlistment of nearly four years. He received at the battle of Nashville, as I recollect, a wound which was at the time dangerous, but not permanently so. He went home. He suffered more or less from that wound through the whole of his life, which terminated in the fail of 1882. The physicians say that the termination of his life was to a certain extent (hard to be defined) attributable fairly to the wound which he had received nearly twenty years before. He had received a pension for that wound, thus being put in the position of having established his claim, His pension was of triffing amount-I do not remember how much. It is not pretended that the injury was permanently a serious one; but the government gave him a pension of, I think, at first, $2 amonth, and afterward possibly $4. I cannot state accurately.

He had four sons-gallant young men. They all entered the army in 1861. Two were shot dead upon the battle-field; another came home with an arm shot off, and the fourth with an eye shot out, both of these sons being totally dis-abled from earning a living. They had no prop-erty, and Mrs. Bradley to-day, having passed the age of seventy, and being without a dollar, comes to Congress and asks that she may be put upon the pension roll to receive the pittance of a widow's pension.

Yet Grover Cleveland, out of his amazing wisdom, decided that this woman was not worthy of the small relief of a few dollars a month in her ionelines and decrepitude. This was no isolated instance, either. It is a fair specimen of the hundreds of cases in which this man apparently went ont of his way to gratify a petty spite against the veterans and their families, and to affront the loyal sentiment of the country. It is proper that these things should be remembered now that Grover Cleveland 18 again an aspirant for the office of President of the United States.

A Collapsed Investigation. New York Special in Philadelphia Press.

When the Democratic Labor Commissioner of this State published his report, Owe Nothing to Cleveland. New York Advertiser.

In his letter of acceptance Grover Cleveland had this to say about the old soldiers of the Republic:

I cannot but remember that the soldiers of our civil war, in their pay and bounty, received such compensation for military service as had never been received by soldiers before since mankind went to war.

The dull meanness of the man who was drafted, and who sent a substitute to the war, is revealed in every word of this, while between the lines can be seen the hateful face of the copperhead. If our veteraus have been well cared for they have deserved it all, and they owe nothing to the party which is backing Mr. Grover Cleveland-absolutely nothing.

S: ill Stands.

New York Advertiser.

When General Sickles stood up in Chicago and denounced Cleveland he did not know that a Tammany nomination for Congress was waiting for him in this city. But the statement that 15,000 Democratio ex-soldiers in this State will not vote for Cleveland cannot be rubbed out. It stands.

Adlat Will Die Game,

New York Press.

The country will be glad to know that Adlai Stevenson, late Esteemed Knight of the Golden Circle, Champion Jag Accumulator and Battle-axe Wielder, is not going to withdraw from the vice-presidential race. He is going to stay right in line until he is downed in November.

When Chauncey Comes. New York Recorder.

When Mr. Depew takes the stump in Indiana the Copperheads will take to the woods, and the horny-handed Hoosier will hear speeches "like his father used to make!"

Caught a Burgling.

Although the police say they have captnred the men who have been committing the burgiaries which have been so frequent of late, the robberies still continue, Early Sunday morning Merchant police Conklin discovered two men in the act of breaking into Koons's tailoring establishment on Virginia avenue. Seeing they were discovered the men took to their heels and escaped, after a chase of several blocks, ending near the east end of the Union Station.

In France instead of using starch 'on table napkins, after they are washed and dried and ready to be ironed, they are dipped in boiling water and partially wrung out between clothes. They are rapidly ironed with as hot a flat-iron as possible without burning them. They will be beantifully stift and glossy.
