ATTURN BY AIR FROM PARIS

A BY HIBSTHEFAN A CO WELCOME

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT)

BUCHAREST, June 8

been proclaimed King instead of his son. seurs which are stationed there. The coup d'Etat has been completely sucobeyed his orders if necessary. member of the Council of Regency. When armed forces in the capital. at last he resigned things moved more quickly. M. Mironescu, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, constituted a stop-gap Cabinet within half an hour in order to Regency: it was held that this went suffi- that the Prince might appear. ciently far towards ending the existence A sense of the ineffectiveness of the the rude disturbance of that process of the Council to enable the Cabinet to Council of Regency as the supreme organ through reckless agitation. But good may fessor Yorga then made a speech in which | events, would have become King. he said that Prince Carol's act renouncing | Prince Carol has always been fairly from the succession.

January 4, 1926. Although there was no intrigue. dissenting note from start to finish, the business lasted for several hours, as each party made a point of saying its say.

AT PARLIAMENT HOUSE Not until 3 o'clock was all ready for the new ruler to appear before his Parlia- ing King. This view was strongly Indee at Agra. This characteristic pur- Indee at Agr ment. King Carol, who had been waiting advanced in the Cabinet Council on Satur- Judge at Agra. This characteristic purprovince, owing to the activities of from the heat, poor food, dysentery, and its members will hold out for a long time yet, yet gained, breaking both Longstaff's at the Cotroceni Palace, now drove in a closed car to the Royal Palace in the capital greater force where its natural effect. So far the Committee while Chang is a strict disciplinarian and the done to release them be done to release them. closed car to the Royal Palace in the argument acquired greater force when it has published no results of its delibers. The position as a whole is that the greater ascent of Kabru. centre of the town where the Prime was known that Prince Carol himself has published no results of its deliberation though his political colours are doubtful, Mr. and Mrs. Porteous are British sub-Riding is now working on the terms of the Minister, M. Mironescu, was waiting with wished to become King. The feasibility tions. If it follows precedent, however, his advent ought to be for the advantage jects. Mr. Porteous came to China in Macmillan Report, which were put into the outgoing Regents to conduct him to of this change was, however, contested by it will issue some pronunciamiento to syn- of the province. the Parliament House. Here he changed into an open landau drawn by six horses of a strong concentration to meet the publication of the strong concentration to meet the publication of the strong concentration to meet the formation of a strong concentration to meet the formation of the strong concentration to meet the formation of a strong concentration to meet the first of a strong concentration to meet the formation of the strong concentration of the s with outriders. He was wearing the uni- Government which had taken the oath of The political leaders not of the Congress the irruption from the South, and is scarcely imaginable. form of a General in the Air Force. His brother, Prince Nicholas, sat beside him. The Calea Victoriei, the main street It became clear that the National Commission. They persist in declaring ward, to take Changsha in the rear, a of April with the iden that the property of the Statutory to the Congress the interpolation of the Congress the interpolation from the Congress that the Congress that the Congress the interpolation from the Congress that the Congress that the Congress the interpolation from the Congress that the Congress the interpolation from the Congress that the Congress that the Congress the interpolation from the Congress that the Congress the interpolation from the Congress that the Congress that the Congress the interpolation from the Congress that the Congress that the Congress the Interpolation from the Congress that the Congress the Interpolation from the Congress that the Congress the Interpolation from the Congress that the Congress that the Congress the Interpolation from the Congress that the Congress The Calea Victoriei, the main street It became clear that the National Commission. They persist in declaring ward, to take Changsha in the rear, a of April with the idea that she would perof the town, was packed throughout Assembly, that is the Senate and Chamber that the Commission's report has been movement in which observers of current suade the China Inland Mission to pay its length with dense crowds. There sitting together, had to be called rendered obsolete before its publication by events have little faith. Chang Fat- $60,000 (£6,000) ransom, was a nervous were people at every window and the upon to decide whether to repeal the proposal for the Round-Table Con- kwai's troops and the Kwangsi forces wreck when she reached Hankow, and whole garrison of Bucharest lined the the Exclusion Act of January 4, 1926. ference. They simultaneously parade number at least 50,000, and with active she is under 30 years of age. Three thouroute. As King Carol drove slowly down This Act simultaneously excluded Prince their doubts whether they ought to pay hostilities on its hands on three fronts in sand dollars have actually been paid to preceded by a cavalry escort, he was Carol from the succession and appointed any regard to the Conference, for which the North, it is difficult for the Govern- the bandit chief, who wrote an order for greeted with volleys of cheers and flowers | Regents in case of King Ferdinand's death | they demand terms of reference, suggest- | ment to muster sufficient troops to resist | the release of Mr. and Mrs. Porteous, but |

to his country and carry out what had accepted by the Regents. A new Cabinet of escape from awkward cituations. There out cignificance that 1 000 troops under two was captured by bandits in South happy, too. to see his dear son again. He the outgoing Minister for Foreign Affairs, appears to be a good deal of this distorder to proceed to the tront, mutinied been received.—Reuter. Regents for having fulfilled their duties to | Party. their country during the last three years. Then the King spoke of the effort which was required of the country to help it over the bad times, an effort in which he was glad to be able to assist. Finally, he said that he hoped to maintain friendly relations with all States, especially with Constitution. On leaving the Parliament House King dispatches in the Press to-day announcing report. The salt campaign has almost weakness, having far-reaching effects. Carol re-entered the landau and, wildly his arrival at Bucharest. He flew from afternoon and the King is now consulting aroused a natural interest and surprise, related by those Ordinances the Bombay Congress hoped order will gradually spread and Sandringham, where they were received by Mr. Arthur Rook the estate point and party leaders. It is expected that a new that the exile of the Prince would be "War Council," as it calls itself, immemake China once more a going concern. by Mr. Arthur Beck, the estate agent, and Administration will be formed to-morrow. coming to an end. There is little disposi- diately replied with professions of de- Whatever the evolutionary consequences the Rev. A. Fuller, rector of Sandringham. It is reported from all parts of the country tion as yet to comment on the political fiance, but the people well know that the of the political and social processes now After a visit to the church the party walked that the news of the arrival of Prince implications of his return, as it is too early Government has plenty of power to in operation, any break-up of the system to the gardens fronting Sandringham House, where the King and Queen welcomed them. Carol and his probable proclamation as to foresee all its consequences, and the enforce its rules when the need arises, and slowly crystallizing at Nanking would the members of the team were presented by

The Queen Mother left Bucharest on country under the Regency, it is to be able for its reception. There has already Friday for Oberammergau, and Prince welcomed both for the sake of Rumania been a great rush to bespeak copies, and It is the new King's intention to form a Coalition Government. All parties are favourable to this except the Liberals. M. LONG-DISTANCE FLIGHT TO Vintila Bratianu refused an invitation to attend at the Palace yesterday with the other Party leaders, but his nephew, M. George Bratianu, whom many consider to PROGRESS OF BRITISH FLYING be the future Leader of the party, came to Bucharest yesterday at the request of the new King and had a long conversation with him.

PRINCE'S ARRIVAL

It was about 10.30 p.m. on Friday that a rumour suddenly began to run through Bucharest that Prince Carol had arrived in the capital. The news caused no sur- in the capital. The news caused no sur- The two machines belong to No. 203

The two machines belong to onted by the death of Mr. John Wheatley, Polytechnic tated by the death of Mr. John Wheatley, Polytechnic tated by the death of Mr. John Wheatley, Polytechnic tated by the death of Mr. John Wheatley, Prince Edward Song OF MY HEAR?

The two machines belong to surface the control of the by-election in the condition to the galleries and private tated by the death of Mr. John Wheatley, Polytechnic tated by the death of Mr. John Wheatley, Prince Edward Song OF MY HEAR?

The two machines held the control of the control of reviving public controversy. The report [was soon confirmed; during the small hours of Saturday morning a communique issued from the Prime Minister's office announced that Prince Carol had arrived and had had conversations with his brother, the Regent, Prince Nicholas, and with Dr. Maniu, the Prime Minister, and that the Cabinet would meet without

What had happened was that Prince Carol had left Paris on Thursday nominally for Sigmaringen, the home of his father's family, but instead of going to Sigmaringen had gone to Munich, where on Friday morning he embarked in a French aeroplane for Rumania. It is believed that the pilot did not know the identity of his passenger. The aeroplane had to come down for petrol at Oradiainformed the Commander of Military night matters have been improving, the were advancing eastward along rapidity. On Friday evening Prince Cotroceni, a suburb of Bucharest, where already dispatched an officer thither to way. Independent information is to the Carol's arrival was still unknown, to there is a Royal residence, and visited the make investigations on its behalf, and now effect that the Northern forces are still day he is not only here but has already barracks of the two battalions of Chas- Mr. Haig, the Home Member, has gone strongly established in the section from Here he was enthusiastically welcomed | vestigation.

cessful. Within a few hours of Prince by the officers, and at the head of both repercussion of the Congress cam-Carol's arrival by air late on Friday night flying, the Prince went to the Palace, paign on the North-West Frontier he obtained practical control of the armed where Prince Nicholas was waiting to re- in the Afridi invasion of forces in the capital and there is no doubt ceive him. The two brothers embraced Peshawar district. The latest authoritathat the rest of the Army would have on the steps of the Palace, while the tive information received here of that troops drawn up in the courtyard cheered affair shows that the operations against the It took Dr. Maniu, the Prime Minister, frantically. Soon after Dr. Maniu, the tribesmen by troops and the R.A.F. actwho does not possess the power of making a swift decision, a whole day to realize the facts. Until the avening supported to the facts of the facts o the facts. Until the evening, supported by the opinion of Professor Yorga, he and a minority of the Cabinet unheld the view Choski, a former Minister for War, fola minority of the Cabinet upheld the view lowed immediately and was directed by that Prince Carol could only become a the Prince Regent to take command of the

POPULAR SUPPORT

The news was made known to the carry out the necessary formalities for the general public on Saturday by the morn- lashkar by then had apparently withproclamation of Prince Carol as King. The ing newspapers, and the impression was drawn from the district. The whole affair first step was the resignation of the unquestionably favourable. Flags soon is the more deplorable in view of the pro-Patriarch of Rumania, Mgr. Miron Cristea, began to show from the windows, and gress made in the past few years in leading and M. Saratzeanu from the Council of crowds gathered in the streets in the hope the tribes from barbarism towards civili-assume Royal prerogatives and dispense of the Government has been steadily come out of the evil, for the invasion was with the anomalous formality of the growing in the country, especially since carried out by the hotheads among the ratification by the Regency of its own the death in October, 1929, of M. tribesmen, who with their first experience surcease which would otherwise have been Buzdugan, whose qualities and character of aerial bombing have had a lesson unhad lent to the Council an authority likely to be forgotten. Elsewhere in the The order summoning the new Houses which it certainly has not possessed tribal region all is reported quiet. of Parliament in special session was sent since. The country is now passing through ! out overnight. By 11 o'clock this morn-great difficulties owing to the economic ing enormous crowds collected round the crisis; the political parties have shown Parliament House. The House itself was themselves particularly unworthy of their Moslem opinion. The Viceroy's cordial They are strong Nationalists; and though I had! Down with Italy! Down with the kingdom, and the whole of the Diplounending series of petty controversies and Communists.

They are strong nationalists, and though they are not the deputation of Punjab now in dubious company, they are not the signatories of the Pro-Memoriâ!"

And they are strong nationalists, and though they are not the deputation of Punjab now in dubious company, they are not the signatories of the Pro-Memoriâ!"

And warenousemen's society, and the admiration of their magnineers company, they are not the signatories of the Pro-Memoriâ!"

And warenousemen's society, and the admiration of their magnineers company, they are not the signatories of the Pro-Memoriâ!" Mironescu first moved the repeal of the in view. A word of warning or an appeal contribution to this. By easy calculation [two articles of the Statute of the Royal for unity from the Throne might have had it is concluded that the Viceroy's words House excluding Prince Carol from the a saving influence and even prove an in- could not have conflicted with what is succession and prohibiting his residence in spiration, but the Council of Regents has written in the Statutory Commission's re-Rumania. This was passed by the been voiceless. The idea that these condi-Chamber and Senate with only one dissen- | tions would last for another 10 years has | ' tient vote. A private Bill was also passed seemed to most people intolerable, and other minority communities. conferring on the Heir to the Throne the their thoughts have turned naturally to title of Prince (Domn) of Alba Julia. Pro- the Prince who, in the normal course of the succession had never had any legal popular with the masses, and the violent value; moreover, King Ferdinand himself and gratuitous campaign against his had protested against his son's exclusion return which was started about a month ago by M. Vintila Bratianu merely pro-The two Chambers then constituted voked a fresh wave of sympathy for him themselves as a National Assembly, and and strengthened the popular belief that similarly revoked the Exclusion Act of he was an innocent victim of political

A DAY OF HESITATION When this was done the National Assembly, amid great enthusiasm and excitement, proclaimed the Prince as King Carol II.

Carol II.

Can despite the Congress Committee's arrival inimediately raised the question of his future status. Before his arrival the majority of his supreme effort, and particularly to lawyers and other professional men. to make all specifices of which they are of either Prince Hicholas or of M. Sarat- appelle it is averywhere understood that of Hankow they dealt firmly with dis- A letter has been received from Mr. and drawn, but if the woolsorters decide to go in, while Schneider and Wieland have left to seanu in the Council of Regency, but the moment he was on the spot voices were immediately raised in favour of his becomined to the moment he was on the spot voices were immediately raised in favour of his becomined to the Maharajah of Durbhanga in a moment he was on the spot voices were immediately raised in favour of his becomined to the Maharajah of Durbhanga in a moment he was on the spot voices were immediately raised in favour of his becomined to the Maharajah of Durbhanga in a moment he was on the spot voices were immediately raised in favour of his becomined to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is expected to advance to Yangtze bandits at Yuanchow in Kiangsi on March is ex were showered into his carriage. When he during the minority of his grandson ing that in not announcing them the an advance on Hankow from Hunan.

The situation is obviously serious for insisting on the original depend.

The situation is obviously serious for insisting on the original depend.

Covernment is playing a tortugue game. were showered into his carriage. When he entered the Parliament House amid a scene of frantic excitement, the President Government is playing a tortuous game.

Seene of frantic excitement, the President Guestion for the greater part of Saturday.

Saturday.

The Saturday of his grandson of his grandson is playing a tortuous game.

The situation is obviously serious, for after a month of campaigning the Government is playing a tortuous game.

The North China Daily News urges the Powers publicly to notify China that they will be described in the president of the greater part of Saturday.

The North China Daily News urges the Powers publicly to notify China that they will be described in the president of the greater part of Saturday.

The North China Daily News urges the Powers publicly to notify China that they will be described in the president of the greater part of Saturday.

The North China Daily News urges the Powers publicly to notify China that they will be described in the president of the

WELL-GUARDED SECRET

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT) PARIS, JUNE 8

The departure by aeroplane of Prince his neighbours. Thereupon the King | Carol from Paris on Thursday was such a swore the accession oath to preserve the well-guarded secret that the first knowings that have retarded the progress of his to the general condition of mind favour- circumstances. and for the sake of Europe as a whole.

BASRA

BOATS

The two British flying boats which are attempting a long-distance flight to Basra, important because of the short supply of and which left Mount Batten air station, the original document, remains to be China.

prise, as the Prince's return had been a Squadron, and are manned by Flight subject of speculation for weeks past, Lieutenant W. J. Budda Langlois, Flight Simon's promised broadcast address on that measures in this connexion will shortly about one and a half million lire labout tions are fixed for Monday, June 16, and Regal THE WHITE HELD OF PITZ PALU1 & S.40 about one and a half million lire labout tions are fixed for Monday, June 16, and Regal THE WHITE HELD OF PITZ PALU1 & S.40 about one and a half million lire labout tions are fixed for Monday, June 16, and Regal THE WHITE HELD OF PITZ PALU1 & S.40 about one and a half million lire labout tions are fixed for Monday, June 16, and Regal THE WHITE HELD OF PITZ PALU1 & S.40 about one and a half million lire labout tions are fixed for Monday, June 16, and Regal THE WHITE HELD OF PITZ PALU1 & S.40 about one and a half million lire labout tions are fixed for Monday, June 16, and Regal THE WHITE HELD OF PITZ PALU1 & S.40 about one and a half million lire labout tions are fixed for Monday, June 16, and Regal THE WHITE HELD OF PITZ PALU1 & S.40 about one and a half million lire labout tions are fixed for Monday. bidden to mention his name for fear of G. Barrett, and Pilot Officer F. R. Drew.

THE WEEK IN INDIA

BETTER OUTLOOK

FRONTIER TRIBESMEN. QUIETENED

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

SIMLA, June 8 The general outlook in India for the re-

Khalil villages, and isolated retreating across the Khajuri plain were heavily bombed from the air, apparently with substantial losses. careful search conducted through the area of South-West Peshawar on Friday failed many. to discover any stragglers, and the entire zation, and of the suffering now caused by

THE HINDU PARTIES

port. The confidence of the Moslems is matched by the quiet expectations of

The bearing of the two main Hindu parties is interesting. The Congress Working Committee has been sitting during the past few days, under Pandit Motilai Nehru's chairmanship, ostensibly to consider the Congress campaign in the light of the two new Viceregal ordinances, designed to check the execution of the nublished revolutionary programme for coercive picketing of cloth and drink shops, boycott of Government officials and instigation of non-payment of land revenue and rent. It is to be observed The Prince's arrival immediately raised that despite the Congress Committee's capable, it is everywhere understood that order, and were not unreasonable in Mrs. Porteous, of the China Inland and there is some doubt in their case—for they reconnoitre the Nepal Gap, and, if of escape from awkward situations. There out significance that 1,000 troops, under Honan last Sunday. No details have yet belief in the attitude of the Hindu at Nanking on Friday. leaders towards the assurances given The Government, as might be expected, with regard to the London Conference. still professes supreme confidence in the A possible interpretation of the Hindu outcome of the conflict, and doubtless leaders' demand is that it is merely a con- one powerful military stroke against the tinuation of the effort to extract from the Northern armies would revolutionize Government the immediate concession of the whole situation. Nevertheless, in booksellers have sent to the Government publication office in Calcutta indents many times covering the number promised for sale. The supply will almost place to-day between the Minister of certainly prove much short of the Finance and the Minister of Commerce demand, for there will be a multitude of and Industry on the one hand and leading would-be buyers who normally take no Chinese bankers and merchants on the vocal part in politics. Whether the other. The Ministers recommended that report will be well launched by the news- gold bar speculation be restricted, and papers, whose accounts will be specially that imports of silver bullion be confined PRINCE'S ARRIVAL

Commission's report. PROSPECTS FOR REPORT

It was about 10.30 p.m. on Friday that yesterday to have arrived at Deere, near radically changed its normal method of first provision was of a somewhat drastic pattern but must be resorted to if circum- works sent to the London exhibition of

* Other Indian news on p. 9.

WAR IN CHINA THE MALTA CRISIS

NANKING ARMIES' PLIGHT

HEAVY CASUALTIES

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

SHANGHAI, JUNE 8 discovered his aeroplane near Oradiamare one. There were very few riots or dis- whereas it was announced from Nanking and took up the Prince as passenger. In turbances except in Bombay. It is diffithis way he arrived at Cluj about 8 p.m. cult at this distance to say what is the Here he embarked in another military true interpretation to allow the prince of the prince as passenger. In turbances except in Bombay. It is diffialong the Peking-Hankow railway were retiring in great confusion towards Cheng-Here he embarked in another military true interpretation to place on the con- chow, thus enabling the Government The events of the last 48 hours have succeeded one another with bewildering rapidity. On Friday evening Prince of Clock. The Prince immediately went to another the constant of India is known to have army operating along the Lunghai railsection, the inference being that operathe tions so far have not been of a decisive

Fighting, however, has been severe, and the old idea that Chinese troops have have been removed from the scene of operations it may safely be assumed, considering the inadequacy of Red Cross! arrangements, that the total Government | siege. casualties on all fronts are five times as now in flood, would not be easily crossed, stacle if the Northerners are determined to occupy the province. The possession of Shantung would materially improve the position of the North, financially and

SOUTHERN ADVANCE In the far south Changsha has been occupied by Chang Fat-kwai and the tion well in hand. Some arrests have their members in the wool textile industry sequently climbed magnificently, while Kwangsi forces. The leaders of the latter, | been made. Li Tsung-jen and Pai Chung-hsi, are able Also notable is the further heartening of men and are maintaining good order. the Cathedral shouted "Long live Strick- Overlookers' Society, the Wool, Yarn, the porters, no words can express our

Dominion status without regard to the view of the strength of the opposition, the Government may find it expedient to withdraw from Honan and Hsuchowfu in

Although the manner of his return has | Congress difficulties have been increased | Nanking Government the world sees the | borders of the Royal estate. In the after- | Scholar in the country, and is recognized as | St. Martin's PETTICOAT INFLUENCE The Mironescu Cabinet resigned this aroused a natural interest and surprise, further by the two new Ordinances. To nucleus of a stability from which it is noon Lord Downe took the Australians to Siam's leading elder statesman. King provoked enthusiastic demonstra- Press as a whole is adopting a waiting the deterrent effect of this cannot be be calamitous and would mean a new Mr. W. M. Woodfull, the captain. The King the action of the National Assembly the accession of the Prince will put an Expectation of the Commission's report reorganization would have to be begun conversed with them for several minutes. Their

CHINESE IMPORTS OF

SILVER BULLION Shanghai, June 8.—A conference took for tea.

for approval and enforcement.—Reuter. | acquisition of other works of art.

ANTI-CLERICAL CROWDS

STREETS CLEARED BY

POLICE (FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)

MALTA, JUNE 8

mare, in Transylvania. Meanwhile, ception of the first part of the Statutory Colonel Precup, a Carolist artillery officer at Cluj, warned by telegram of his coming, at Cluj, warned the Commander of Military.

It is still impossible to gauge the war afternoon reached 70deg. locally in England both on Saturday and yesterday. For would again denounce him during the moment decidedly favourable. For a fortat Cluj, warned by telegram of his coming, moment decidedly favourable. For a fort- Saturday stated that the Northern troops of Table 1 and 1 an the St. John's Cathedral. Unusually large warmer day of the two, 72deg. being no mountaineers ever confronted a harder crowds were both in and outside the reached at more than one considerate or more hopeless task than the northern Planes to meet the Prince. One of them past week being better than the preceding Lunghai railway practically unchecked, church. In his address the Archbishop in Hampships church. In his address the Archbishop in Hampshire. limited himself to stating that in Catholic Yesterday's sunshine figures were even Alpine peaks, and this in the face of winds countries the civil authorities—judges, better than those of Saturday in Eng- and cold at altitudes of over 20,000ft., ministers, and police—obey the bishops land. Judging from the records obtained while blizzard has succeeded blizzard. But and that in every conflict between Church up to 6 o'clock in the evening they must worst of all were the ice avalanches. and State the former always proves to be have in many instances represented Kanchenjunga is the terrible mother > little stomach for serious warfare must be The Commissioner then gave orders not to custom, had to drive in a State carriage to back to south-west, and it became executing this order, but the street down fresh to strong on our north-west coasts. executing this order, but the street down to Queen's-square seemed in a state of Northern Ireland, and rain reached the When Archbishop Caruana came out of

The advance of the Northern forces rounded by a number of mounted and into Shantung has not gone beyond the foot police as escort. The Nationalists, north bank of the Yellow River, and as breaking through the police cordon, dethe great bridge near Tsinanfu has been | monstrated in favour of the Archbishop | eastwards across the northern districts. rendered impassable, the river, which is while his carriage proceeded slowly down the street. By the time it reached the but would not prove an insuperable ob. Vicinity of the Palace Square the hostile demonstrators had reached there from the side streets. The Commissioner thereupon ordered the Archbishop's coachman to drive faster. When the carriage passed the corner of the square a hostile demonstration took place and some red handkerchiefs were waved. The excitement lasted until noon, but the police had the situa-were very prominent in demonstration frequently—that the attitude of the overin favour of the Government.—Reuter.

The crowds remained outside shouting terms. anti-Italian cries.

BANDITRY IN CHINA

CAPTIVE MISSIONARIES' SUFFERINGS

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)

the National Assembly, welcomed his 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon met amid Government show they mean business," their opponents are encouraged by their discuss no question of the revision of treaties Siamese Minister in London, the staff of Sovereign and informed his Majesty of its great excitement, but as no Ministers were decision. King Carol then made an present there was no formal sitting Later to the Press. A traveller in the record from Hunan. No support comes from Decision of order.

| Additional Assembly, welcomed his 4 o'clock on Saturday atternoon met amid demands Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru in a letter successful resistance and the diversion till the leaders of all factions cease quarrelling the Legation, and several members of the later and combine in the restoration of order. decision. King Carol then made an present there was no formal sitting. Later address of thanks. Speaking at some in the afternoon, Dr. Maniu handed in the said that the Hindus placed no trust in Communists are spreading their tentacles.

| Particular of the Accompanied by his two daughters, and meanwhile brigands and ceived that Mr. Clifford King, an American Princess Boon and Princess Bilai, who Apollo Communists are spreading their tentacles. can, of the Mission Society of the Divine were wearing European dress.

AUSTRALIAN TEAM AT SANDRINGHAM

RECEPTION BY THE KING AND QUEEN

order to concentrate its forces within a exception of E. L. à Beckett and A. and before leaving London he had an interview London The moment appears extraordinarily smaller area, a measure which, if taken, Jackson, visited Sandringham yesterday with Lord Salisbury, then Prime Minister. ledge of his coup was provided here by dispatches in the Press to-day appears in the Press to-day appearance of the appearance of the would of course be an admission of The team went to Newfolk have received by the King and Queen. of Minister of Interior, and no one has a more Lyceum The team went to Norfolk by motor-car intimate knowledge of the problems of the New wreath on the grave of the Universe to Cluj via Munich in a Far- come to an end, and there is a good deal abroad to the military extravagances of luncheon by Lord and Lady Downs of the Prince has devoted most of his time Princes wreath on the grave of the Unknown Rumanian Soldier.

The Mironeson Cakinat main rachine piloted by M. Lalonette.

The Mironeson Cakinat main achine piloted by M. Congress difficulties have been increased The world sees the Nanking Covernment to the tentum of the Nanking Covernment to the tentum of the Nanking Covernment to the tentum of the Nanking Covernment to the Nank corresponds with the feeling of the end to the uncertainty and party bicker- has probably made no small contribution all over again, in the most adverse Majesties then went for a motor drive, and the cricketers visited the new museum, where the cricketers visited the new museum, where the Prince of Wales, and the Duke of York establishment in Newark or the vicinity Royal Albert Hall during their tours are displayed. They saw of an educational institution of a type unthe gardens, and were conducted through the stud farms by Major Featherstonhaugh. The visitors afterwards returned to Hillington Hall

PROFITS FROM ITALIAN ART EXHIBITION

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Signor Modigliani has sent a telegram to SHETTLESTON BY-ELECTION Kensington be submitted to the Central Political Council £16,300], which is to be devoted to the polling will take place on Thursday, Theatre {COHENS AND KELLYS}

TWO SUNNY DAYS

FRESH WIND ON THE COASTS

(FROM OUR WEATHER CORRESPONDENT) Northerly winds from very high latitudes spread over the whole country by Saturday morning. Sunshine was so abundant that the temperature in the After his recent addresses condenning afternoon reached 70deg. locally in Eng-nearly all the sunshine possible at this of avalanches. Here avalanches fall After this homily, however, there was a season. In London the duration was 15 6,000ft., taking in the fall a mile or more hostile demonstration among the crowd hours. The wind, however, having veered of level glacier in their stride. Having outside the church. Notwithstanding the to the north-east, and consequently being explored every approach, we can endorse there for the week-end for a personal in- Chengchow to Lanfeng, and while the reinforcements were called out and the drawn from the North Sea, the tempera- Mr. Freshfield's opinion that Kanchen-Nanking Government forces have failed reinforcements were called out and the ture in the shade was remarkably low to dislodge the Northerners, they are police then drove the demonstrators from along the East coast. Maxima of only 56 equally firm on the Kweiteh-Hsuchowfu the immediate precincts of the Cathedral or 57 degrees were reported in Kent after towards the Strada Reale, the main street. a night that was cold enough for ther-Here, however, the crowd succeeded in mometers exposed on the grass to fall breaking away and rushed in the direction of the church. There was an ugly was extremely dry, and the unusual moment, but the police regained control. transparency of the upper atmosphere only to clear the square fronting the suggested that winds of Arctic origin Yesterday the eastward movement of Hebrides. The anticyclone that has the Cathedral he found his carriage sur- spread in from the Atlantic is expected to maintain fine weather for another day or two in the south, with a rising temperature, while rain gradually extends south-

WOOL TEXTILE WAGES

THREE UNIONS TO RESUME WORK

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT) BRADFORD, June 8

to resume work as soon as possible. The Duvanel gallantly continued filming until Malta, June 8.—The crowd outside unions are the Yorkshire Managers' and an ulcerated throat laid him low. As to When the crowds were being driven National Society of Woolsorters meets ship. through the Strada Reale a special next Tuesday to decide what shall be its If the expedition has failed to reach the correspondent of the Italian newspaper attitude, no sign is yet given that the summit of Kanchenjunga it has by no > lookers is holding up the employment of many district who are ready to resume work.

warp dressers and the warp twisters—are also

SIAMESE PRINCE IN LONDON

(FROM OUR BANGKOK CORRESPONDENT) Prince Damrong left Siam on April 20 on a | Drury Lane THE THREE MUSKETEERS visit to Europe, where he had not been since | Duchess THE PLOUGH AND THE STARS 1891, when he arrived in London on Septem- Embassy THE MERCHANT OF VENICE ber 3. The late Sir Robert Morant was then of Everyman his party. Prince Damrong, in his thirtieth Garrick year, was at that time Siam's first Minister of Globe Public Instruction, and was in Europe to study | Grafton educational institutions. He had luncheon with | Haymarket THE FIRST MRS. FRASER party including the Prince of Wales (after- Hippodrome wards King Edward) and the Duke and His Majesty's Duchess of Connaught. The next day Prince Kingsway The Australian cricket team, with the Damrong had a long talk with Mr. Gladstone,

£1,000,000 GIFT FOR EDUCATION

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT) NEW YORK, June 8

Mr. Louis Bamberger, the retired head Collseum of Bamberger and Co., Newark, New Holborn Empire
Jersey, and his sister, Mrs. Felix Fuld, Palladium many big game trophies collected by the King, have given $5,000,000 (£1,000,000) for the known in this country, to be known as the Institute for Advanced Study.

It will be exclusively for post-graduate Olympia work and scientific research. It will pro- Tussaud's vide facilities for research by distinguished savants and will train advanced students, but will not admit undergraduates, being devoted solely to "the serious Astoria pursuit of advanced study" secure from Pavilion outside distractions.

June 26.

KANCHENJUNGA

GRAPHIC STORY OF FINAL ATTEMPT

EXPEDITION'S NEW

OBJECTIVE (World Copyright Reserved) (FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT) BASE CAMP, MAY 22

junga must have been constructed by the demon of Inaccessibility. We returned to the base camp on the 19th a tired party, both mentally and physically. Only Wieland and Smythe stuck out the whole of the trying 19 days above the base camp. Three trade unions have instructed Schneider was ill at first, though he sub-

Gazzetta del Popolo, Signor Nicola National Union of Textile Workers, the means failed in other ways. It has accom-Pascazio, who has been contributing a largest of the unions involved in the dis- plished, and is accomplishing, much valuseries of articles to his journal against the pute, is considering the question of giving able exploration work. It has explored Government, was identified when coming way. Its position, however, is very much the whole of the Kanchenjunga glacier down the street. The crowd made a rush undermined in various ways. The Power and both its eastern and western tribuat him, but he was rescued immediately Loom Overlookers' Society still declines taries. It has examined the great and took refuge inside a chemist's shop. steadfastly to accept the employers' Ramthang glacier, discovering a practicable col connecting it with the Kunchen-To a certain extent the two last-mentioned junga glacier. Dyhrenfurth has discovered A feature of the day's events was the unions go together, for it is probably the fact many interesting geological facts, while fact that the Labour Party supporters and the employers indeed have stated so Kurz has been hard at work filling in blanks or altering inaccurate spaces in the workers in the manufacturing sections of the | map. Lustly, from the climbing point of view, we have returned rewarded with the Two other craftsmen's unions—those of the ascent by Schneider and Smythe of the of work, but their unknown 23,000ft, peak at the head of the members in dispute number only a few Western Kanchenjunga glacier and hundreds, and a small number of dyers is also Ramthang glacier, which we first named involved. The total membership of the three Madonna, but which Dyhrenfurth subseunions who have decided to end the dispute is about 16,000, of which probably less than one-third were actually withdrawn from their.

The expedition is now preparing to work. It is difficult to estimate how many attack the 24,340ft. Jonsong Peak and record on Trisul and Graham's claimed

THE WEST RIDGE tion of a strong concentration to meet conditions on persons of their age are will probably be worse off, taking a long view junga is impossible by the north ridge of the matter, than if one existed, the situation will probably be worse off, taking a long view junga is impossible by the north ridge partly because of the danger of ice ava-

ENTERTAINMENTS INDEX

(Continued on page 12, column 4)

(For details see page 8)

OPERA THE BEGGAR'S OPERA THEATRES A NIGHT LIKE THIS THE CONFEDERATESY AND THE MAN IN INSULT THE SILENT WITNESS NINE TILL SIX SILVER WINGS THE BLUE COAST ALMOST A HONEYMOON HAMLET THE CO-OPTIMISTS OF L BITTER SWEET 2.30 & 8.30 LIBERTY HALL COCHRAN'S 1930 REVUE 2.30 & 8.15 HERE COMES THE BRIDE 2.30 & 8.15 LHAC TIME THE LAST CHAPTER DISHONOURED LADY

OTRELLO THE MIDDLE WATCH RUTH DRAPER Vaudeviile | Victoria) FOLIES BERGERE REVUE 2.30 & 8.15 THE HOUSE THAT JACK ? Garden Wyndham's ON THE SPOT 2.30 & 8.30 VARIETIES 2.15, 5.15 & $.15

6.30 & 9 6.30 & 9 CONCERT AHAWATHA

2.30 & 3 EXHIBITIONS Crystal Palace ROYAL TOURNAMENT 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

2.30 & 8

10 to 10

PICTURE THEATRES Alhambra SONG OF SOHO HIGH SOCIETY BLUES 1 to 11 BRIDE NO. 68 2 to 11 THE VAGABOND KING 2 to 11 MYSTERIOUS ISLAND 12 to 12

Marble Arch (THE CASE OF SERGEANT) 2 to 11

SONG OF THE FLAME 12 to 11 (FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT). "War In China." Times, 9 June 1930, p. 10. The Times Digital Archive, link.gale.com/apps/doc/CS168501961/TTDA?u=fudanu&sid=bookmark-TTDA&xid=c9820923. Accessed 7 Feb. 2023.